

Travelling to Ibrox

Ibrox Stadium is one of the most accessible grounds in European football, with first class public transport, road and airport links.

By car

From Glasgow city centre

Take the M8 Westbound to Junction 23, turn right at the slip road traffic lights onto Dumbreck Road and continue through the next traffic light junction. At the roundabout take the third exit, Ibrox Stadium is on your left hand side.

From Glasgow Airport

On the M8 travelling towards the city centre Eastbound, exit at Junction 24 and turn left at the slip road traffic lights onto Helen Street. Continue through the next set of traffic lights. At the roundabout take the third exit onto Edmiston Drive, take the second exit at the next roundabout, the Stadium is on your left hand side.

From Ayrshire

Travelling North on the M77 motorway, exit at Junction 1 and turn left onto Dumbreck Road at the slip road traffic lights. Continue straight through the next three sets of traffic lights onto Broomloan Road. At the roundabout take the third exit. Ibrox Stadium is on your left hand side.

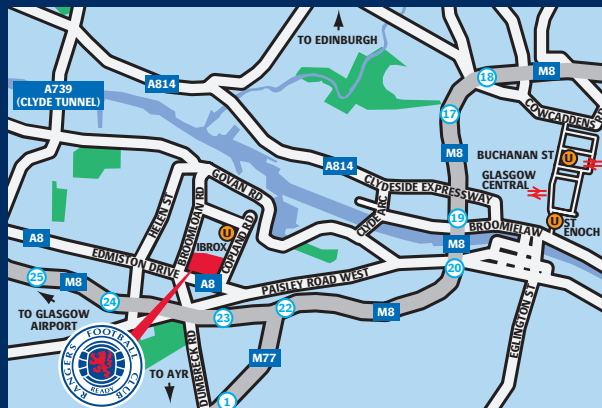

Visitor car park located in Stadium grounds.

By subway

The most convenient way to reach Ibrox Stadium from Glasgow city centre is by subway. From Ibrox subway station, the Stadium is just a short walk away. The subway takes 10 to 15 minutes travelling on the Outer Circle, and just a few minutes more in the other direction on the Inner Circle. With trains arriving and departing approximately every five minutes, it is a popular choice of transport for visitors.

By bus

Bus links from Glasgow are frequent, with bus stops to all points within 300 yards of the Stadium. Visit travelinescotland.com for a detailed list of bus times from any point in Scotland.
